- Well designed and reliable
- Animal welfare and hygiene
- Completely smooth surface inside = minimum risk of injuries to the animal and accumulation of feed residue
- Suited for both dry and liquid feeding
- Minimum feed waste: inverted edge
- Easy cleaning: the troughs are mounted free on the floor allowing washing down underneath them

STAINLESS STEEL TROUGHS

Made of strong stainless steel. Can be used for liquid feeding walls

- Everlasting: made of stainless steel
- Minimal feed waste: inverted edges
- Hygiene and animal welfare: The edges are rolled on the outside so the surface is smooth on the inside. Minimising the risk of accumulation of feed remains and injuries to the animals
- Flexibility: Individually adapted length from 60 to 600 cm
- Cheap assembly: Easy handling, as the troughs are lighter than concrete
- Easy to clean: The troughs are elevated from the floor, allowing washing underneath them
